Dear Mrs Cox,

I am delighted that you are planning the above tour and it was a pleasure to receive your enquiry.

I am pleased to suggest your tour itinerary as follows:

Day 1

Local departure by coach, then on to Newquay for four nights. We enjoy a tea, coffee or mulled wine with a festive treat on arrival to get us into the spirit of the season.

Included meals: DinnerDay 2: Truro

This morning, we enjoy some time to relax before an afternoon visit to Truro. Visit the beautiful cathedral or wander the festive market around Lemon Quay and enjoy a hot chocolate. Pick up some local Cornish produce or enjoy a festive treat. We return back to the hotel in time for dinner.

Included meals: Breakfast & Dinner*Day 3: Bodmin Moor and Bodmin Jail

This morning, we drive over imposing Bodmin Moor. Steeped in history and boasting countless ancient monuments, the area has gained notoriety with tales of the 'Beast of Bodmin' that is supposed to roam the hills. The highlight of today will be an included visit to Bodmin Jail. Built in 1779, the jail is a landmark site that guides visitors to explore Cornwall's historic past and the jail's dark, fascinating legacy. The attraction is fully accessible and has a café and interesting gift shop. We return to the hotel.

Included meals: Breakfast & Dinner X m/cDay 4: Eden Project

Today we visit the magnificent Eden Project. Experience the sights, smells and scale of the rainforests in the Rainforest Biome, amble amongst the orange and lemon trees in the Mediterranean Biome, and in the 30-acre Outdoor Garden discover a wide variety of plants that flourish in the Cornish sunshine. The vast exhibits and fantastic displays attract visitors from all over the world.

Included meals: Breakfast & Dinner*Day 5: Return Home*Included meals: Breakfast*PRICE BASED ON 40 PASSENGERS TRAVELLING
